Manager Torreyson is still in a maxe of uncertainty regarding the possibility of keeping the Wheeling Inter-state league franchise in this city, but hopes to be able to close with the Cilies people to-day. Unless the ground question is to-day. Unless the ground question is settled to-day or to-morrow it is more than likely that the franchise will be said to one of the Grand Rapids applicants for $2,000, an offer that has been open for several days. On the other hand, if the Cilles heirs come to an arrangement with Torreyson and the siret railway prople the franchise and ball club will remain in Wheeling, a consummation devoutly to be wished.

Manager Torryson last evering announced the names of players he has already signed for Wheeling this season. There are fifteen likely youngsters pletcher Hutton is likely a comer. Robert J. Glenalvin announces that he has retired from base hall, in the following characteristic style:

"This is no Fatti affair," he declared, solemaly. "I mean what I say, I have swiped at the last ball and run my last base. Did you look at the batting averages that Ban Johnson and Comiskey cooked up? They figured me at .274. Holy smoke: Why, confound it all, I led the Grand Rapids team in batting and after I went to St. Paul I certainly batted next to McBride. I hit better than I ever did in my life, and what did I get for it? I had a chance to go to chicage and two other league clubs. But those doctored batting averages queered me. I hit as good as .380, If I did not 30 that high mark me down as a clam. I am disgusted with the wholebusiness, and will work in Chicago this summer."

BOXING.

There was a hot glove contest to a shall county, which was witnessed by eeveral sports from this city. It was between Edward Say and Lou Henlen, two men working at the oil wells near Viola. Henlen comes from Butler county, Pa., and is some shucks as a boxer, and his meeting with Say was to set tle a dispute as to their respective abilthe a dispute as to their respective abil-tiles, and also a grudge that had aris-en. They mat in a barn, and the regu-lation ring was set up. In the seventh rund Referee H. Fauble called it a draw, as Say was badly published and claimed that he was out of condition, yet the contest was really stopped be-cause it had developed into a regular clugging match, with a few rough and tumbles thrown in.

Henlen was seconded by Galla Mitchell, Ed. Fisher and William Lantz, while J. Frazier, R. Steele and A.
Fisher were Say's attendants. C. S.
Perry, of Oil City, was time keeper.
The tarly rounds were distinguished by Yast work, Henlen having the best of it. Say tried forcing matters, but was soon put on the defensive, and though both were weak at the end of the seventh round, Say was about done.

An interesting preliminary was sparred between Mitchell, of California, and

The sixty days' guarantee is thought by dealers to be hurting sales in New York, the idea being that riders do not care to get a wheel now and wait two months, until the guarantee has run out, before having a chance to ride it. The consequence is that some concerns are extending the old guarantee of six months. As they will discontinue this in the spring and return to the sixty days' guarantee, quite an inducement is offered to riders to buy now.

Chairman Albert Mott evidently does Chairman Albert Mott evidently does not care whom he hits when he wants to express an opinion. Despite the fact that chainless wheels are selling well, he is quoted as delivering, himself in this wise, relative to winter riding: "A ride in several inches of freshly formed snow, like riding over the thickly fallen leaves of autumn, is a delightful change and full exhilaration. If you are properly clothed for it, the rarest and most enjoyable novelty is to ride through a driving and drowning rain and feel the sensation that you are snug and dry driving and drowning rain and feel the sensation that you are snug and dry (except for perspiration and a natural southern thirst when you approach the suburban trough). Of course, you want a gear case to make things run smoothly at such times, but those will be as common in '93 as hay wagons on the Lancaster pike. Gear cases will he the great rival of the chainless wheel in the coming season."
